

FROM SEATTLE

A Newsy Dispatch from the Queen City
[SEATTLE, March 28.—The death of Charles Johnson by the accident at the Cannery, reported in our issue of the 27th, was caused by Johnson attempting to move a loaded car, placing his back against it and pushing it with all his strength. In making the move he slipped and fell, his back being crushed. The deceased was a native of T. N. and 37 years old. Although in California only a few days he made many friends among the people of the city. He was married and had a wife and children in the state of Tennessee.
The latter raised a pure of $2,000 money, which was placed in one of the S. N. to banish to himself. The body was brought to Seattle last evening and will be buried tomorrow.

"I day night it kept entered the lodgings of" Randolph Lowmyer, a German peasant who is the employ of Lowmyer & Hanford, over the 14th street, and from there he took his walks S. in charge. The third man was captured.

Saturday afternoon a man named Jack Hagerly, well known in this city, went to the Gold Street Hotel, and engaged a room for the night. A man who occupied bed in the same room discovered that Hagerly had a knife and waited on him. Toward morning when he was better in a few minutes he got up, went into the hall, and was gone a minute or two, but when he came back he felt odd and suspicious. He went to the door, unlocked it, and sent for, and, learning the circumstances, did not deem it necessary to hold an inquest. The evident cause of death was heart disease.

The United States lighthouse tender Manzanita, which left Seattle on Saturday morning, went over to Blakeley and will probably be kept there for an examination of her bottom, or she will be taken under tow to the drug store at the mouth of the strait. The tender was under the command of Capt. Seabree, the inspector, having finished inspection of the district for this quarter. The Manzanita will then take her departure for the home station at Astoria.

The Manzanita is owned by the Bell company, which will appear at Frye's opera on Monday. It is expected the open house will be held at the opera house on Monday night, and will appear in Vesell's grand opera Arizona.

The demand for horses in this city is greater than ever. The demand is increasing rapidly, owing to the fact that the city is growing so fast that the demand for horses is increasing.
